President

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

—Philippians 4:6-7

Taylor University wants to teach young people the Christ way of life. She is determined to give her students an intellectual background for their faith and to lead them into a definite personal relationship with Christ. She wants to teach them to honor and welcome the Holy Spirit into their lives in His fullness. After these two things are accomplished, she would teach them how to be loyal, effective, active Christian leaders in their home, community and church.

Taylor University wants in every way possible to demonstrate to those who come to her campus that God's Salvation is sufficient for our day.

To the Wind

Thou viewless Spirit of the boundless air!
Unseen thyself, thy presence is revealed
On earth, in sky, and sea. Close creeping now
Near earth, thy tender touch doth sway the flow'r
The tender grass and yellow ripening grain,
Till billows roll like sea of green and gold.
Then, mounting up from grass through shrubs and trees,

Thou art revealed again by rustling leaves,
And swaying branches mark thy graceful course
Across the swinging chasm from tree to tree.
Then glancing high above our heads we see
The thunder-cloud low driven by thy might;

While higher still, no hight too great for thee,
Like reckless flier swiftly ridest thou
The white bird-clouds across the bending sky.
And when thou walkest on the glassy sea
Thy dainty step leaves tracks of rippling light;
But gathering speed, and bolder, firmer tread,
Like snorting war-horse dashing to the fray,
Colossal in thy might, thou pil'st the waves
Like liquid mountains capped with snowy foam,
And rising, twisting spray meets torrents fierce
Of rain and hail whirling from the frowning clouds
While Rage holds revel in the elements.
